FIRST GAME OF THE SEASON PLAYED SATURDAY ON THE HOME GROUNDS

Strong Williamsburg Nine with Spencer in the Box Proved difficult Proposition for the Locals

The William and Mary nine opened the season most propitiously by a victory over the Williamsburg aggregation on Saturday. The latter presented a strong line up, with a number of old college stars holding down positions.

DIX VERSUS SPENCER

Dix made his debut on the mound for the Orange and Black, while Graves and "Suke" Spencer did the flinging for the Town. Weather conditions with the concomitant lack of practice affected both teams, and the game was jagged and replete with errors, but the interest was sustained, and the contest close. Until the sixth inning, the score stood 4-0 in favor of the College boys, Graves who was the caterer to a swatfest in the first being relieved by Spencer, who allowed only one hit. In the sixth, a couple of hits combined with costly errors gave the Town three runs, but the boys came back to earth again and ended the scoring with a one-run majority.

LOOKED GOOD TO FANS

The healthy swatting this early in the season after a few days' practice sounded good to local fans, each hitting for a total of eight bases. The next week's practice should put the boys pretty well on their feet, though there is a long march between Saturday's exhibition and championship ball. All conditions considered, however, the prospects are bright, and with the material at hand, hard work will turn the trick.

OLD LIVE OAK MAY BE DEAD

From the appearance of the old live oak at the College gate, death has overtaken it. For the first time the leaves, which have always been of a deep green at this period of the year, have turned to almost a brown shade and look withered. If death has taken this veteran to the land of high hopes, the College has lost one of its noblest landmarks, and one of its most ancient. It has seen much of the picturesque history of America and holds within its heart a long list of student secrets that would be well worth the hearing.

THE SOUTHERN PRESS ASSOCIATION

The first meeting of the Southern College Press Association will be held next month at the University of South Carolina. Mr. Earl Baldwin Thomas, Editor-in-Chief of The William and Mary Literary Magazine will attend, and possibly the Editor of THE FLAT HAT also.

William and Mary was a charter member of this association, and is the only college of its size in the South eligible to membership since she is the only one with both a weekly and monthly publication.

WHO'S HOW AND WHY AT THE VENERABLE COLLEGE OF WILLIAM & MARY

Something of the Great and Super Great in These Parts. Number III, Teddy Eddy Willcox

Elward Roane Willcox was born in Norfolk, this is not said disparagingly, but stated as a simple historical fact. As a child he was very precocious, being able to say "Mamma" and "Papa" if squeezed real hard, or squashed in a door. Authorities agree that he no longer makes these obtruse remarks under similar circumstances—also that he prefers squzzation to squzzation.

As time went on, Teddy went with it, at anything from a 9:30 to 27:28 clip, usually the latter. Speed is not his long suite. Anon he entered William and Mary with an academy diploma in one hand (shut tight) and his heart in the other (wide open). With a glad cry he tossed that heart out into the great unlabelled, and life with him has since been one long search for its finder.

ALWAYS BEAUTIFUL

Naturally a pretty child, he is utterly unconscious of it, (personal affidavit) and was greatly embarrassed by a request to pose for Willie Pogany as "Psyche at the Sink." This was because there was no mirror by the sink. To ease his aching heart he thought about studying law and has thought about it ever since. He has several times completely dried up the local Fountain of Knowledge, tho' he is so modest that only when asked about it will he admit that he is the Alpha and Omega of wisdom.

Teddy has several times endangered his life by over-work, having come into close contact with a number of people who were well acquainted with it, but each time has failed of inoculation, his splendid constitution and soporific by-laws protecting him.

The Ultimate of so versatile a youth is hard to locate. He is already high in the councils of the Sons of Rest, while the whole broad field of Mormonism with its numberless opportunities and millinery bills crops out for young proselytes. Once he finds his path, and installs a high power, self-cocking, six-cylinder, fore-and-aft motor, he will doubtless follow it to the bitter end; if it isn't too far and some one will run the motor.

REDUCTION MADE IN THE PRICE OF BASEBALL SEASON TICKETS THIS YEAR

Practically Puts Baseball upon a twenty-five cent basis. Nine Home Games Offered

The management of the baseball team aims to put all the baseball games on the home ground within the reach of every follower of the game. The schedule this year is, because of the class of teams it includes, the heaviest and most expensive, as well as the most extensive ever undertaken. The first game, that with Randolph-Macon, will be undertaken at a 35 cent admission fee. Fredericksburg, McGuire's, Medical College and Union Seminary will be twenty-five cent games, while the three championship contests, and the big game with South Carolina will be fifty cents.

For those, however, who are ready to give the team their full support, season tickets have been printed, the single ones cost $2.50, double tickets $4.00. This makes an average rate of 28 cents per single ticket and of 22 cents for double admission, the cheapest rates ever offered at this college. As these figures show, the aim of the management is not to make money, but rather to give every ball lover an opportunity to witness all the games.

In case of any regular game being struck from the schedule by rain, the management will at the end of the season, refund to such holders of season tickets, as request it 1-9 of the cost of the season ticket for each unplayed game.

Those holding single season tickets will really receive free admission to three games, while those holding the double tickets will have an equivalent of free admission for one to all the championship games, the South Carolina game, three of the lesser games.

COBURN PLAYERS MONDAY, APRIL 29

Monday, April 29, will be a busy day at the College. The date for the Shakespearean productions by the Coburn Players, originally set earlier in the week, has been changed to the 29th, and the baseball game with Union Theological Seminary scheduled for that afternoon has been shifted to 10:30 a. m. of the same day. The entire day will be well filled by these attractions, and it is probable that the College will give holiday.

TELEPHONES..... Nos. 73 and 24

Entered at the Postoffice at Williamsburg, Virginia, as second-class matter.

IN THE NATURE OF TALKING SHOP

For some time we have wanted to say something of ourselves. But the burning topics of the day have prevented us up to now. THE FLAT HAT is printed in an old fashioned way, in an old fashioned City, for a very ancient College, just in the way that it should be. Every letter is set by hand, and one page is printed at a time on a small job press not much different from that one upon which Benjamin Franklin first printed Poor Richard's Almanac.

This is by no means in the style of The London News, but it suits the day and the place and the HAT very well, and what is best of all it brings about typographical and mechanical perfection. It may smack of the art of puffing, yet, be it said that few sheets present a better appearance than the HAT.

The Rector of the Board of Visitors once said that THE FLAT HAT reminded him greatly of a pocket handkerchief. That may not be disputed, but this may be said,—The greatest things in the world have the smallest beginnings; the oak comes from an acorn; a cyclone looming across the sky is no larger at the first than a man's hand; and The Virginia Gazette, which has the double honour of being the first to print the Declaration of Independence, and the mother of THE FLAT HAT, was in the beginning a fair little sheet of only six by twelve inches in size, and yet it has gone on and on, increasing in size, and will go on forever.

Also, while THE HAT is no bigger than a kerchief it contains about four thousand words of reading matter, not to mention eight columns of advertisements, and that were scarcely possible for a piece of linen so little.

A WORD CONCERNING GYMNASIUM

The following letter was received Friday at THE FLAT HAT office. It is self explanatory:

Mr. Wm. K. Doty,
Editor of THE FLAT HAT,
Dear Sir:

I would like to take a few lines of your space to call the attention of the proper authorities to a condition that has come to exist in our Gymnasium. The Gymnasium is a place that is used daily by practically every student in college, and on that account nothing but the very best of sanitary conditions should prevail. But this is not the case. The place has become infected with various organisms that are not conducive to good health. No decent lockers can be obtained by those desiring them, and yet, enough money is paid to the "Gym" each year to provide for the best equipment and proper janitor service.

Our building is one of the best in the State, erected in a modern manner so as to give the best condition of sanitation. We have all the necessary appliances to do the best work, still no one can enter the dressing-room with any degree of comfort or safety.

We sincerely hope that this state of affairs will be remedied. Its solution is simple and may readily be obtained. Subscriber.

THE FRATERNITY GERMANS AND THE FINAL BALL

It was a cause for general regret when the Faculty at their last meeting declined to do away with the Final Ball in favour of one of the fraternity Germans. The German Club which gives the last dance at Finals, drew up an article stating the willingness of that organization to surrender its night to one of the fraternities for the general good of the College, if not indeed for the sake of peace and harmony. But the Faculty, for reasons that are very good so far as theory goes and mighty pretty on paper, but which are poor so far as practice is concerned, and which are by no means suited to the actualities and exigencies of the occasion, thought best to decline to make room for four fraternity dances.

They acted of course according to their lights, and in a manner which they considered good and proper. Whether, however, they acted for the better, it would seem, doubtful, since there are decidedly two sides to the question. Personally, we do not believe that they chose the lesser of the two evils. The passing of the three old Germans will work more toward a loss to the College than to the fraternities which have given them heretofore.

SEASON TICKETS FOR BASEBALL

The regular baseball season tickets are ready, and are being offered by Manager English at a most reasonable figure. This is done only as a means of securing an amount of ready money for the preliminary expenses of the team, and the sale of as many as possible by the Management is hoped for at once.

The Who's How and Why Column is bringing in subscriptions in even greater proportions than was hoped. We have had to enlarge the issue, for the mountains rose up and cried 'Blessed is a Greek God' and the echoes answered 'Why is a Cord.'

The heavy batting of the team in last Saturday's game with the nine from Williamsburg argues strongly for victory again this Spring. 'Doc' Marrow said yesterday that he was both surprised and pleased at the showing made and believed that the heaviest batting team in years would be developed.

The Editor-in-Chief of the Colonial Echo has asked that announcement be made that all material for that publication must be handed in at once. All written matter should be in his hands at the earliest possible time.

Good and reliable authority has given out the report that another William and Mary Professor is preparing a book for publication. His name will not be given just yet, but it is hoped that something definite will be possible shortly. If the work is prepared it will be exhaustive and authoritative.

SEVENTY-FIVE STUDENTS ON TOUR

On Saturday morning last all students were excused from classes to attend the lectures of the Farmer's Institute whose train lay in wait at the England street station. A third of the entire Student-body took advantage of the leniency of the Faculty and assembled at the Chesapeake and Ohio depot where they were so taken by the wit, wisdom and eloquence of Judge Castle of Pulaski, and Messrs. Ford, of Ohio, and Luzoden, of Virginia, that responding to the invitation of the above gentlemen they boarded their private train and proceeded to Newport News.

Mr. Ford claiming that it took as much thought to raise good corn as it did to run a college, and backing his proposition by authoritative argument had earlier in the morning convinced Dr. Tyler that a portion of the William and Mary student's education would be neglected unless they be allowed to listen to the lectures of the farmers, of whom of course Mr. Ford was one. A great time ensued, and although they missed the baseball contest, the bunch came back happy and contented leaving some tales behind them.

GERMAN CLUB MAKES CONCESSION

In consideration of the fact that some dispute had arisen over the nights for Germans at Finals, the German Club met last week, and agreed to surrender its night at Finals to one of the Fraternities for the sake of concord. A declaration to that effect was sent to the Faculty, but that body declined to admit of the elimination of the Final Ball on the score of democracy. Just what the effect of the Faculty action will be seems doubtful from all reports. By next week THE FLAT HAT may be able to set forth the condition of affairs which will determine the action of the Fraternities and the German Club.

SUNSHINE AND JONQUILLES

For a stretch of four days weather conditions have been ideal. The transformation from the former character of March weather, which has presented but one clear day since the first, was well-nigh as sudden as that of Dr. Jekyll to Mr. Hyde. Jonquilles are every where blooming. Sunshine may be had at wholesale, and the young men at the College in a true debutantian style have pronounced it all to be 'heavenly.'

HONOR FOR MISS DAVIS

Miss Nannie Davis has been commissioned by Governor Mann as one of the State's ten delegates to the annual meeting of the National Sociological Association, which meets in Nashville, Tenn., May 7-10.

This is a high and deserved compliment to Miss Davis, personally as well as to the Model School and the College. The Model School has a distinct and valuable place in the State's educational work, and it is eminently gratifying to the city and to the College to see this fact recognized in Miss Davis' appointment.

SOUTHWEST VIRGINIANS DISAGREE

Some of the students at the College from Southwest Virginia are said to have strenuously disagreed with the address of the Reverend Mr. Mead on Sunday morning. Conditions in that part of the State furnished the subject for the address, and the young men say that the picture drawn of the section was inaccurate in a general way, and that while the remarks could be applied to a limited part of the population, it would be totally inapplicable to the larger number of citizens who are as law abiding and religious as any other people in the State.
